

National Marine Educators Association

Sponsorship Opportunities

2021 Annual Conference • Long Island, NY

The New York State Marine Education Association (NYSMEA), is proud to be hosting the National Marine Educators Association (NMEA) Annual Conference June 27 – July 1, 2021. NMEA is the premier professional organization for classroom teachers, informal educators, university professors, scientists, and all those dedicated to advancing the understanding and protection of our marine and freshwater ecosystems. We expect to host about 400 marine science educators from the New York area, the rest of the United States, and worldwide.
